

THIRTEEN MEN WERE IN MINE

Nine of Them Met Horrible Deaths When an Explosion Occurred.

ANOTHER BADLY HURT.

Cause of Explosion is Unknown—Heart Rending Scenes.

South Carrollton, Ky., Feb. 11.—Nine men met almost instant death and one was so badly injured that his death is expected at any moment in an explosion at the mine of the Moody Coal Company at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The dead are:
Robert Cook, white, aged forty-five years. Married.
John Bush, white, aged fifty years. Married.

The remaining seven dead miners are negroes and are as follows:

Charles Rose.
Pete Penick.
James Bryant, white, aged twenty-five years, and married, was removed from the mine in an unconscious condition and his body horribly mangled.

CAUSE IS UNKNOWN.

The exact cause of the explosion will probably never be known. There were thirteen men working in the shaft, which is one hundred and eighty feet deep, at the time of the explosion.

POLICE COURT CASES.

Are Followed Into Higher Court By Fourth Class City Officials.

Senate Bill No. 35 has passed both houses and will soon become a law, and it has an emergency clause. An Act amending an act entitled "An act for the government of cities of the fourth class," and approved June 28, 1893.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

Section 1. That an act entitled "An act for the government of cities of the fourth class," and approved June 28, 1893, be and the same is hereby amended by striking out Section 35 of said act, said section being Section 3517 of the Kentucky Statutes, and inserting in lieu thereof the following, viz:

"Section 3571. All fines and forfeitures recovered in any court, the prosecution of which originated in the Police Court, in the name of or in favor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, for violation of the penal laws committed within said city's police jurisdiction, are hereby granted to the city without regard to which court the final judgment is rendered in, and when collected either in the Police Court, the Circuit Court of the county in which said city is located, or in the Court of Appeals, after payment of all fees and costs, the proceeds of said judgment shall be paid to the Treasurer of said city. When an appeal is taken from a judgment of a Police Court under the penal laws of Kentucky, it shall be the duty of the City Attorney of said city to represent the Commonwealth in said case in any court to which it may be appealed, and it shall not be the duty of the Commonwealth's Attorney or County Attorney to so represent the Commonwealth in such appealed case or cases. When judgment is rendered in favor of the Commonwealth in such appealed cases, it shall be the duty of the City Attorney to take all steps necessary for the collection of said fine or forfeiture and for the enforcement of said judgment. When, in the enforcement of a judgment in a case appealed from the Police Court, it is necessary to imprison the defendant, the cost of the imprisonment shall be paid by the city."

Section 2. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

Section 3. Whereas a large number of cases under the penal laws of the State have been, and are being, appealed from the Police Courts of cities of the fourth class, which will prevent said cities from collecting the judgments herein granted them, an emergency is declared to exist, and this act shall take effect immediately upon its approval by the Governor.

MARRIED HERE LAST TUESDAY.

Miss Maybel Dillman, a "Kentuckian" Guest to Jamestown.

WAS A QUIET WEDDING.

Mr. Alpha Jameson, Pembroke Business Man, the Groom.

A quiet wedding took place Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Boyd's on Thirteenth street, the principals being Miss Maybel Dillman and Mr. Alpha Jameson, of Pembroke. Rev. W. E. Mitchell, pastor of the Pembroke Baptist church, made a special trip to officiate, which he did in his usual happy manner.

MISS MAYBEL DILLMAN.

The bride is one of the most accomplished and popular young ladies of her section of the county. She is a daughter of Mr. J. H. Dillman and has been teaching in the county schools for several years.

As an evidence of her popularity, she was one of the young ladies sent by the Kentuckian to the Jamestown Exposition last summer. She is a young lady of rare culture and attractiveness and her many friends in the city will unite with us in wishing for her and Mr. Jameson a long and happy life.

The groom is one of Pembroke's strenuous young business men and has hosts of friends who will be glad to learn that he has secured such an excellent young lady for his life partner.

ASSOCIATION HOUSE BURNED

Another Big Tobacco Fire at Springfield.

ORIGIN A MYSTERY.

Loss Estimated at $15,000 With Some Insurance.

Springfield, Tenn., Feb. 12.—The big warehouse of Wm. McMurry was burned last night, the fire being of mysterious origin. The warehouse was worth probably $8,000 or $10,000 and was formerly occupied by McMurry as a Regie house. McMurry owned the building, but did not attempt to open this season. The building was leased as a prize house for the Dark Tobacco Association and it was well filled with tobacco and prize had just begun. The loss is estimated at $15,000. The insurance on the building was only $2,000. The tobacco was, it is understood, insured.

One theory is that fire was caused by the overturning of a stove.

This is the second fire in that county within the last ten days.

About a week ago a barn belonging to H. C. Lawrence, at Sadlersville, was burned by night riders, who shot up Lawrence's house and wounded him and his son.

AGED CITIZEN

Of Mannington Dies After Long Illness.

D. F. Teague, a well known citizen of Mannington, died Monday, after a long illness, of a complication of diseases, aged 70 years. He was a man held in the highest esteem by every one who knew him and had been a member of the Universalist church for a number of years. He leaves a family. The interment took place at Old Petersburg Tuesday. Rev. J. M. Rasmak preached the funeral.

EIGHT WAGONS

In Line Looked Like Old Times.

A string of eight four-mule wagons Tuesday, going up Main street, loaded with hay, tobacco, corn and farming implements, attracted almost as much attention as well, we liked to have said a circus parade. It looked like somebody on the farm was busy last year attending to his own business. Country wagons loaded with farm products have been quite numerous on the different streets for a week or more.

CANDY NOT HARD TO MAKE.

Delicious Confection Is That Known as Chocolate Pralines.

This is what is required: Five ounces of loaf sugar, four ounces of almonds, coating chocolate.
Blanch and shred the almonds.
Put them on a tin in the oven and brown them slightly.

Rinse a pan out in cold water, put the sugar into it, let it melt slowly, then boil it until it is a golden brown. Next turn it on to an oiled slab or dish, and leave it till cold. Then pound the sugar to dust in a mortar.
Pound the almonds to a past, and then put the sugar and almonds together and pound them till they are oily.

Shape the mixture with your hands into little balls, squares and work shaped pieces, and leave them on a tin till dry.

Then melt some "coating chocolate," gently dip each ball, etc., into the melted chocolate, and put it on a greased paper till it is dry.

These are most delicious, and while being very expensive to buy, can be made at a very small cost.

TRY THIS "KISS PUDDING."

Something New In the Way of a Light and Delicious Dessert.

Put one pint of milk in a double boiler; heat to boiling point and add three tablespoons of sugar and two tablespoons of cornstarch, which which have been dissolved in a little milk. Let boil, stirring constantly, and add the whites of three eggs, which have been beaten to a very stiff froth; beat the mixture well and pour into teacups, filling them half full. Set aside to cool and make sauce for same as follows: Bring to boiling point one pint of milk in a double boiler, then add three tablespoons sugar and three beaten egg yolks, thinned with one tablespoonful milk. Stir constantly until it thickens (do not boil or it will curdle), flavor with lemon or vanilla and add a pinch of salt. Cool and pour over pudding and serve.

Candied Chestnuts.

Cook a pint of chestnuts until tender in slightly salted water. Drain. Melt two ounces of chocolate over hot water and add a teaspoonful of vanilla. Mix one cupful of granulated sugar with two tablespoons of water, boil without stirring until a little dropped into cold water crystallizes to the brittle point at once. Take it off the fire and add the chocolate. Dip the chestnuts one by one into this, laying them on waxed paper. Let cool and store in airtight cans. The chocolate may be omitted and the syrup colored pink or green and if flavored with wintergreen or peppermint makes a pretty and acceptable after dinner sweet.

Autumn Leaf Cakes.

Two cups flour, two eggs, half teaspoon salt, one teaspoon cold water. Mix all together, flour breadboard lightly, roll the mixture into a large thin sheet, cut with a sharp knife two inch squares, and drop a few at a time in deep hot butter, when brown on one side turn over, remove from frying pan, put in more leaves; when all are done sprinkle with powdered sugar. You will have a large platter of the most delicious cookies that the most delicate stomach can digest. The hot butter makes them grow into the most lovely shapes that resemble fallen leaves.

Ensalada Mixta.

This is a refreshing Cuban salad. On a foundation of crisp lettuce leaves place bits of cold boiled potatoes, string beans, asparagus, slices of raw onion, also of green sweet peppers, olives, cold boiled eggs and radishes. Pour over all a dressing of oil, salt, pepper and vinegar. This is a good way to use small quantities of vegetables left over, as corn, peas, beans and other things add to the toothsome-ness of it. A little care in arranging makes also a pretty dish.

Washing Dishes Made Easy.

Put a dish pan half full of water on the stove when you begin to get dinner. As you use a pan or dish wash it and put it away. Lastly, wash frying pans and kettles, then throw out water. After dinner you will not have such a discouraging looking kitchen. There will be no pans or kettles with dried food to be soaked out, and the dishes from the dining room are easily washed.

To Clean an Iron Sink.

An iron sink which is badly discolored with rust, and which is covered with a thick coat of grease, may be cleaned with kerosene oil. The sink is simply rubbed with an abundance of kerosene. Apply the oil at night, so that no water need be run into the sink for several hours. Then in the morning it should be wiped dry.

Shoes in Housework.

If you must do your own housework see that your shoes are loose and absolutely comfortable. Change them more often in the afternoon, as nothing rests the feet more. If your feet get so tired that you feel you cannot stand up another moment, and your feet are swollen, take time to dip them in cold water and give them a vigorous rub.

Chinese Mutton.

Dice fine a pint of cold mutton. Add a head of lettuce torn in shreds, a can of peas drained, a teaspoonful of onion juice, salt and pepper, a tablespoon of butter and a cupful and a half of broth or water. Simmer gently for half an hour, seasoning to taste. Serve with a border of hot boiled rice.

HAVE STOOD TEST

RECIPES KNOWN AND USED FOR YEARS.

Will Bring Back to Many the Joys of
Their Childhood Days and the Good Things Mother Used to Make.

It is a singular thing how we grow older the inherited or childish tastes for certain dishes take precedence over the later and acquired tastes. No water is so sweet and refreshing as that which trickled over the mossy sides of the "old oaken bucket" for in those days we didn't bother our heads over such unimportant things as microbes or surface drainage. No frapped drink in crystal fountains with the pink lemonade that blissfully crowned a visit to the circus or country fair. No bread is so delightfully satisfying as the "one rising," the fat brown loaf or "rye n' ginger," or the spoon bread of the south, though we might find to-day the first malodorous, the second coarse and heavy, and the third soft but soggy. Oh, for the "loved of boyhood," the pies and cookies "mother used to make," the turnovers and "jolly boys," the jumbos and "hermits," sand tarts and card gingerbread that made our school lunch baskets the envy of our mates.

Would you like some of these recipes gleaned first hand from practiced housewives, north, south, east and west? Every recipe is not only rich in association, but so good that it is still in use in the families originally brought up on it.

High Bridge Gingerbread.—This is still in use in an old homestead where the fifth generation is in possession. Put in a pan one cup molasses, one cup brown sugar, one cup melted butter, and add a dessert spoonful soda and stir until dissolved and foamy. Add one cup sour milk in which a dessert spoonful soda has been dissolved and stir until the whole mixture is foamy. Add two beaten eggs, a teaspoonful grated nutmeg, and a dessert spoonful of cinnamon, a tablespoonful ginger and three cups of flour. Stir until well blended, then bake in a moderate oven.

Maple Wood Hermit.—Mix together two cups sugar, one cup molasses, one cup pure lard, softened, and two level teaspoonfuls soda dissolved in a cup of warm water. Add two well-beaten eggs, two teaspoonfuls cinnamon, one teaspoonful cloves, six cups flour and one cupful fruit, which may be seeded raisins, chopped English currants or chopped prunes. Mix very dry, and cook with a cooky cutter and bake on floured tin in a medium hot oven.

Auntie Coe's Ginger Snaps.—Roll one pint of molasses. When cooled to milk warm beat into it one beaten egg and one teacup butter and lard, mixed and melted. Add two tablespoonfuls ginger, then work in one teaspoonful soda dissolved in a spoonful warm water and enough sifted flour to enable you to roll out the dough easily. It must be rolled water thin, the snaps stamped out and baked quickly. Remove carefully from the pan and lay on sheets of paper until cold and crispy.

Good Chili Sauce.

A chili sauce is made by a western housekeeper, which will be found good and economical. Chop finely six large green peppers from which the seeds and white pulp have been removed, and four large onions. Cut into small pieces 24 large ripe tomatoes. Put them together in a kettle, mix thoroughly and add three tablespoonfuls of salt, eight tablespoonfuls of brown sugar, six cups of vinegar, two teaspoons of cinnamon and one of cloves. Boil it gently one hour, then seal in pint cans.

Spiced Grapes.

One quart grapes, vinegar, one pint sugar, one level tablespoon ground cloves, one level tablespoon ground cinnamon. Remove grapes from stems and wash. Put into preserving kettle, cover with vinegar, heat slowly to the boiling point, and cook for thirty minutes. Strain, add sugar and spice, and let come to a boil. Remove from the fire and when cold bottle for use. This is very nice with cold meats.

To Remove Dye Stain.

I applied some red dye on my tan covert skirt and the cleaners told me that any substance strong enough to take out the stain would eat the goods. I knew that hot water would set the dye, so I scrubbed it with ivory soap and ammonia and cold water, using a brush. This plan was a good one, for after much scrubbing it was as good as new.

Make Children's Stockings.

A good way to make cheap stockings for children is to take men's worn balbriggan underwear and with an old stocking for a pattern cut out and with a ten-cent package of dye of either black or brown dye them. Several pairs can be had from a suit of clothes, according to the size of the child.

Household Economy.

When house cleaning the best and quickest way to wash woodwork is to wring a cloth out of soft warm water, dip it in soda, and rub on the woodwork. The dirt will be easily and quickly removed and the paint will look fresh and new.

On Cold Washdays.

To prevent hands from getting cold while hanging up clothes, wipe hands dry and rub thoroughly with powdered starch.

Coal mine operators regard as absurd the story that the mines of Hopkins county have been mined by union miners and will be blown up when a favorable opportunity arises.

There was a slight variation in the ballot for Senator Tuesday. Beckham received 60, Bradley 59, Wheeler Campbell 5, Allen 1 and Watterson 1. A crisis is believed to be approaching in the deadlock. Those who claim to know say that the passage of the county unit bill will be followed by the election of Bradley. The break may not come when it passes the House, as it is not likely that a fight will be made there, but the action of the Senate will decide the contest.

Three recent decisions by the Republican Supreme Court have greatly lessened the Republican chances of success this year. One before Christmas was declaring the Employers' Liability law unconstitutional. This was followed by a decision permitting railroad companies to discriminate against union labor by refusing to employ union men. The last was the decision rendered in the case of Lowder & Lowe awarding them triple damages against the Hatters' Union, of Danbury, Conn., for a boycott against the former's hats. The court held that the boycott extended to many States, which in the language of the bill, constituted a combination to limit and restrain interstate commerce.

PLOT IS OVERHEARD

To Blow Up Non-Union Hopkins County Mines.

Madisonville, Ky., Feb. 8.—The following is a letter which was received by one of the local newspapers, written at Hopkinsville and dated at Henderson.
"Hopkinsville, Ky., Feb. 7, 1908.—For some time I have been trying to avoid the performance of a duty I owe to an innocent and unsuspecting people, but at last my regard for human life prompts me to write this letter, which, if published, I feel confident will be the means of saving hundreds of human lives and prevent the destruction of many thousands of dollars worth of property. On the night of Jan. 25, I happened to overhear a conversation in an adjoining room to mine at a hotel in the city of Hopkinsville. Judging by the different voices there were three men in the room, and one of them was revealing a plot to blow up the non-union mines in Hopkins county. One of the number stated that there were high explosives planted in twelve different mines in Hopkins county, and that there were from five to seven men in each of the mines who were acquainted with the location of the explosives, as well as the methods of exploding them. The plan, as revealed, is to set the explosives off when the power is turned on in the morning at the electric mines, and to use a fuse where electricity is not used. During the conversation, one of the number remarked: 'It will never do to let President Smith know of this plan, for he is as bitter as hell against violence of any kind, and will not stand for anything like this.' Another remarked: 'Ah, the damned scabs will all be in hell before Smith knows anything about our scheme.'
"For God's sake, make this known before it is too late. J. R. A."

Only a Cold.

"Only a cold," is a common expression. And so the victim lets it go on, day after day, red eyes, swollen features, lassitude, sleeplessness, loss of appetite, the irritating cough.

In itself a cold may be simply uncomfortable. In its results it is often fatal. Pneumonia, with its enormous fatality; consumption, with its deadly grip; bronchitis, asthma, these and many ailments are often the direct result of a cold.

The patient may have had many colds. They have resulted in nothing serious. But when the system has become weakened by these repeated attacks, when the mucous membranes are in a chronic unhealthy condition, then it is these fatal maladies assert themselves.

This is no greater mistake than to neglect a cold. At its first appearance measures should be taken to relieve it. At this season of the year, when coughs and colds are common, Peruna should be kept constantly in the house. At the first symptom this remedy should be taken. It will soothe the mucous membranes, relieve the irritation, and the cold will gradually disappear. That this has been the experience of many is proven by the hundreds of grateful letters in our files.

The Blarney Stone.

In there really such a thing as a blarney stone in Ireland? asks a subscriber.

It is a stone built in the wall on the summit of Blarney Castle (about four miles northwest from Cork). This stone is said to confer on the person kissing it the power to speak agreeably. The castle was built in 1449 by Cormick McCarty. The true blarney stone recognized by the natives is not the one commonly kissed, but is in the wall several feet from the top, and can be kissed only with great difficulty and with assistance, by leading over the parapet.

NO WONDER WOMEN

TIRE SO EASILY!

Too Many Bandages Around Their Waists.

Chicago, Feb. 10.—A woman gets tired and exhausted after the slightest exertion because she is improperly dressed according to the theory of Dr. E. C. Dudley, expressed yesterday in a lecture before a class in Northwestern University Medical College.

"No wonder her circulation is poor; no wonder she is unable to stand any exercise or exertion to amount to anything," said Dr. Dudley.

"The upper garments are usually of some thin material, and according to the caprice of fashion may or may not cover the arms, neck and upper part of the bust.

"A profusion of skirts are worn loosely around the lower extremity of the body, and the feet are held in a vise-like grip of thin, high-heeled covering which resembles stilts more than shoes.

"In strange contrast to such inadequate protection of the upper and the lower extremities, the waist and hips are swathed and compressed in a 'torrid zone' of whalebone corset, belt steels and the pads of the various under and outer garments worn by the women of today.

"The average woman wears a total of seventeen layers of bands of some sort around her waist. Allowing 24 inches as the average waist circumference of a Chicago woman, although there are many with larger waists, it means that each woman has a total of 34 feet of bandage tightly wrapped around her."

Dr. Dudley told his class the only way the woman of today can become strong and hearty is by banishing the numerous tight bandages about the waist and giving more care to keeping the upper and lower portions of the body warm.

"NOAH'S ARK" GIRL

Paducah Breach of Promise Case Settled by Cupid.

Paducah, Ky., Feb. 10.—Dan Cupid effected a reconciliation between Mr. Earl Griffith and Miss Flora Tyree, a well known couple of this city, and they are now man and wife. A few days ago Miss Tyree brought suit against Mr. Griffith for $3,000 damages for an alleged breach of promise. They were to have been married Dec. 24, 1907, but, Miss Tyree alleged he broke the engagement after she had given up her position at "Noahs Ark" store.

Robert Moore Blows the Top of His Head Off With a Shot-gun.

Covington, Ky., Feb. 11.—Coroner Murat was called to-day to investigate the suicide of Robert Moore, aged 22 years, of Boone county.

Moore blew off the top of his head with a shot gun. He took off his shoe and pulled the trigger with his toe. Before killing himself Moore made a perilous trip across the Ohio and back, taking every precaution to prevent his skill being sunk by the floating ice.

MRS. JOHN UNDERWOOD

Suffered With Stomach.
Mrs. John Underwood, 520 W. Walnut St., Columbus, Ohio, writes:
"Having had catarrh and stomach trouble and having suffered very much, I, after being doctored a long while, as a last resort took Peruna. The result was wonderful. I would highly recommend it as a good remedy. I still use Peruna and would not be without it. I always have it in the house."

Catarrh and Stomach Trouble.

Mrs. T. Frech, R. R. No. 1, Hickory Point, Tenn., writes:
"I am happy to tell you that I am cured of catarrh. I have followed your good and kind advice faithfully. I bless the day when I wrote you of my condition, and I will always praise Peruna. I think it is one of the grandest medicines on earth."

"Having been afflicted with catarrh and stomach trouble for seven years and after having tried four different doctors they only relieved me for a little while. I have all hope of being cured. I only weighed 130 pounds, and was so weak I could hardly get around the room."

"It was indeed to try Peruna, and to my great surprise I am now entirely well. My weight is now 180 pounds, my health never was better in my life."

"I shall always praise Dr. Hartman and his remedies." Thousands of families have learned the use of Peruna and its value in the treatment of catarrhal ailments generally.

MRS. LYDIA H. JESSELYN

Tired, Worn-Out Mothers.
Mrs. Lydia H. Jesselyn, 501 Westminster St., Providence, R. I., Treasurer of the Editors League of Rhode Island, chartered in Providence, she writes:
"My experience with Peruna has been most gratifying. Last winter I contracted a severe cold, and for several days I coughed until my voice failed me. When other remedies did me no good, I decided to try Peruna, and within four days the cold was broken up, and the cough abated."

"Within another week an increase in my usual strength and vitality told me that Peruna was doing all that it promised, and more. I also considered very superior for tired, worn-out mothers, and have advised several to try it, and have seen most gratifying results from its use. I give it highest praise."

Bowel Trouble.

Mrs. Maggie Durbin, 1332 North St., Little Rock, Ark., writes:
"I was troubled for five years with a chronic disease. I tried everything I heard of, but nothing did me any good. Some doctors said my trouble was catarrh of the bowels, and some said consumption of the bowels."

"One doctor said he could cure me. I took his medicine two months. But it did me no good."

"A friend of mine advised me to try Peruna and I did so. After I had taken two bottles I found it was helping me, so I continued its use, and it has cured me sound and well."

"I can recommend Peruna to any one, and if any one wants to know what Peruna did for me if they will write to me I will answer promptly."

Peruna is a household remedy of great merit, and is useful in many climatic ailments, such as coughs, colds, sore throat, bronchitis and catarrhal diseases generally.

MRS. LENA R. MOUDY

Biliousness, Indigestion.
Mrs. Lena R. Moudy, 305 Caywood St., Portland, Oregon, Sec'y Royal Tribe of Joseph, writes:
"For the past six years biliousness and pains in my back and limbs made life miserable to me. My skin was sallow and dry, and indigestion was added to my troubles. I was wakeful at night and would get a weak, faint feeling during the day so that I was not fitted to attend to my regular duties. This caused me serious annoyance and trouble, and I naturally tried many remedies, hoping to get relief."

"Peruna came as a friend in need. It toned up the system, relieved the blood of the poisons and induced a healthy action of the stomach, a fine appetite and restful sleep."

"Within three months I was a changed person, and for nearly a year now I have enjoyed splendid health."

A Grateful Patient.
Mrs. Eliza J. Cane, R. P. D. Bedford, Ind., writes: "I have been cured by using Peruna and Manlin. I thank you for your advice."

Mrs. Eliza J. Cane, R. P. D. Bedford, Ind., writes: "I have been cured by using Peruna and Manlin. I thank you for your advice."

MRS. EMILY KELLOGG

Bilious Headache.
Mrs. Emily Kellogg, 5449 S. Lawrence St., South Tacoma, Wash., member of Ladies of the Maccabees, writes:
"Three months ago I had an attack of biliousness which threatened to undermine my health and strength. Luckily for me, I tried Peruna at the suggestion of my friends before it was too late."

"I found in a few days time that I did not have the usual sick headache, neither did food nauseate me any longer. In two weeks' time Peruna had completely rid my system of the poison and bile, and I was in a much better condition. My skin assumed its normal color, I had a splendid appetite, and I was in every way improved in health. I used Peruna for a month longer, and it wrought a wonderful change in my entire system. I consider it a most wonderful medicine."

Nervous Dyspepsia.

Mrs. J. C. Jamison, 61 Marchant St., Watsonville, Cal., writes:
"I was troubled with cramps in the stomach for six years. I tried many kinds of medicine, also was treated by three doctors. They said that I had nervous dyspepsia. I was put on a liquid diet for three months. I improved under the treatment, but as soon as I stopped taking the medicine, I got bad again. I took the medicine for two years, then I got sick again and gave up all hopes of getting cured."

"I saw a testimonial of a man whose case was similar to mine being cured by Peruna, so I thought I would give it a trial. I procured a bottle at once and commenced taking it. I have taken nineteen bottles and am entirely cured. I have gained in strength and flesh and feel like a different person."

"I believe Peruna is all that is claimed for it."

"I saw a testimonial of a man whose case was similar to mine being cured by Peruna, so I thought I would give it a trial. I procured a bottle at once and commenced taking it. I have taken nineteen bottles and am entirely cured. I have gained in strength and flesh and feel like a different person."

MRS. JOSEPH VITTUR

Catarrh of Head.
Mrs. Joseph Vittur, 5709 Erie St., Austin Sta., Chicago, Ill., writes:
"Your medicine, Peruna, was of great benefit to me. I suffered with catarrh of the nose and head for many years. Three bottles of Peruna cured me, after I had considered it impossible to ever be cured again."

"I now always keep Peruna in the house, and recommend it to every one suffering from catarrh. As soon as one of my children commences to cough I give them Peruna, and their cough is soon gone."

"This medicine is surely a great boon to suffering humanity."

Peruna the Family Doctor.
Mrs. M. E. Seymour, R. F. D. 2, Bowman, Ga., writes:
"I am ready to speak a few words in favor of Peruna and Manlin. I have tried them for nearly every ill of life for myself and family, and find them to be all the doctor claims them to be. Peruna cured me of internal trouble when my doctor could not."

"My advice to all suffering women is, consult Dr. Hartman. What he has done for me he will do for you."

Peruna in Tablet Form.
For two years Dr. Hartman and his assistants have incessantly labored to create Peruna in tablet form, and their strenuous labors have just been crowned with success. People who object to liquid medicines can now secure Peruna tablets, which represent the medicinal ingredients of Peruna. Each tablet is equivalent to one average dose of Peruna.

Local Leaflets.

"No crop in 1908 and $50,000 to finance the 1907 crop. . . . That ends the trouble in this section." Is the way a dispatch reads from Mt. Sterling, Montgomery county, Ky., last Saturday. We heard one of the largest tobacco buyers on the Hopkinsville market say the other day that he wished the farmers in Christian county wouldn't raise a pound of tobacco this year.

The Y. M. C. A. of Louisville has a debt of $20,000 hanging over it. They have painted a big white elephant and put it up at Fourth and Main streets and are trying to raise the money to pay the debts by subscriptions. The elephant has been divided into 4,000 squares and $5 a square is charged. Hopkinsville has a white elephant on hand in the way of an uncompleted Y. M. C. A. building. In the meantime people are walking on an unpaved sidewalk, the unpainted wood work will soon rot away, and one by one the glass are being broken out of the windows. Moral for H. and L.: Don't build until you first count the cost—and have the money.

"What becomes of all the pins?" has been a common question, and it is about as easy to answer as "Where does all the mud come from?"

The new drug store in Hotel Latham is scheduled to be open to the public to-morrow. It's going to be mighty nice, too.

MEXICAN QUAIL

Turned Loose at Pembroke This Week.

The Mexican quail is to be given a chance in Christian county. Mr. T. D. Jamison, of Pembroke, turned loose about a dozen of them this week in the hope that they will thrive and increase in numbers in a short time. The Mexican quail is said to have some points of excellence over the common bird. The birds were sent to Mr. Jamison by one of his friends from Lorraine, Texas, and arrived by express last Monday. The new bird bears but little resemblance to our quail. It is dove colored, has a top-knot and its tail is much longer than the Kentucky bird.

Mr. Farmer:
Are you satisfied
where you are?
Wouldn't you consider a change for the better?

There is wealth and independence for you along
the Cotton Belt
Route in Arkansas and Texas—

Why?

Because the soil is rich. It is not worked out. It can be bought now for about one-fourth of its value.

The climate is mild and healthful. You can work out of doors the year around. There are good schools and churches. Live stock has good range nearly all year. No costly barns are needed for winter housing. There is a long growing season—this means bigger and more profitable crops.

You can raise and market some crop nearly every month in the year. There are good markets nearby. There is an abundant supply of good water. The rainfall is plentiful and evenly distributed.

Think what you're offered!

Low land values —
Good water —
Two crops a year —
Convenient markets —
Grazing for stock the year around —

Can you afford to stay where you are?

Just consider whether it's better to take advantage of the wonderful opportunities this territory now offers, or continue where you are, struggling along under adverse conditions, waiting your time and energy trying to make a high-priced farm which is "all worked out" pay.

Don't delay! Go Southwest! You won't make a mistake. Twice a month, Homesteaders' tickets are sold by the Cotton Belt at very low rates. Make a trip of investigation—it will be the best thing you ever did. Write for our descriptive literature—tells all about Arkansas and Texas—Let us help you to decide.

Only a Cold.

"Only a cold," is a common expression. And so the victim lets it go on, day after day, red eyes, swollen features, nasal discharge, sleeplessness, loss of appetite, the irritating cough.

In itself a cold may be simply uncomfortable. In its results it is often fatal. Pneumonia, with its enormous fatality; consumption, with its deadly grip; bronchitis, asthma, these and many ailments are often the direct result of a cold.

The patient may have had many colds. They have resulted in nothing serious. But when the system has become weakened by these repeated attacks, when the mucous membranes are in a chronic unhealthy condition, then it is these fatal maladies assert themselves.

This is no greater mistake than to neglect a cold. At its first appearance measures should be taken to relieve it. At this season of the year, when coughs and colds are common, Peruna should be kept constantly in the house. At the first symptom this remedy should be taken. It will soothe the mucous membranes, relieve the irritation, and the cold will gradually disappear. That this has been the experience of many is proven by the hundreds of grateful letters in our files.

WHAT THE KIDNEYS DO.

Their Unceasing Work Keeps Us Strong and Healthy.

All the blood in the body passes through the kidneys once every 3 minutes. The kidneys filter the blood. They work night and day. When healthy they remove about 500 grains of impure matter daily, when unhealthy, some part of this impure matter is left in the blood. This brings on many diseases and symptoms—pain in the back, head-ache, nervousness, hot, dry skin, rheumatism, gout, gravel, disorders of the eyesight and hearing, dizziness, irregular heart, debility, drowsiness, dropsy, deposits in the urine, etc. But if you keep the filters right you will have no trouble with your kidneys.

Mrs. W. I. Bailey, living on east Greenville st., Madisonville, Ky., says: "I am four years since I recommended Doan's Kidney pills through our papers and my confidence in them during the time which has elapsed has not been shaken in the least, on the contrary I learned more about them and can recommend them even more strongly. I said at that time that Mr. Bailey had suffered from kidney complaint off and on for a number of years, and had used almost every known remedy for this trouble but nothing brought permanent results. He finally learned of Doan's Kidney pills and got a box. They benefited him in every way more so than all the other kidney medicines he had ever tried. He has used them many times during the past four years, and they have never failed to give him relief from these severe attacks. I have used Doan's Kidney pills myself for a weakened condition of the kidneys and they proved just as satisfactory in my case. We both think there is no remedy like Doan's Kidney pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Both Worlds. The great difficulty is to feel the reality of both worlds, so as to give each its due place in our thoughts and feelings, to keep our mind's eye and our heart's eye fixed on the land of promise, without looking away from the road we are to travel toward it—Augustus Hare.

Winter.

How calm the ruffled turquoise lies ahead.
Its ruffled sparkling white with gems.
And how the hedges hold aloft a crown
All set with glaucous diadems!
Where cosy brooks sing softly through
The down.
That lies beside it pure and white,
The hush of winter waves its jeweled wand.
And still the Autumn's rustling flight.
The moon's wind that all night long
Has waivered.
To misty, tuned to woe,
Has passed beyond to realms we know
Not of.
And left in peace the clinging snow.
The hush of the fallen leaves
Lie covered where they softly fell,
On naked limbs the russet, by vine
Still quivers in the zephyr's swell.

The hills, like monuments of opalescent
Sands, reveal a golden in bridal white.
Beneath the dome of Heaven's church to Wait.
The sounding of the winter's flight.
And as the breeze chants low the wedding
Song.
The stars a night light into place—
Behold! The moon comes up to light the way
And grows to lovers face to face!
And as the winter claims the blushing
Hills
And changes the wedding bride so fair,
Approvingly the ring a glad refrain
Of welcome to the bridal pair,
Or sighs to the fireplace, glowing red.
We feel the thrill of nuptial bliss,
And peering on the Winter's glad domain
If love there, we steal a kiss!

It is love that is pure and hushed delight—
The silent grandeur of the snow.
The hush of the evening of clinging life.
Beneath the warm grate's ruddy glow.
Ah, we'll go, know that by some freak
Of fate
This sparkling world enchanted lies—
A bit of heaven here on loveliest earth
With Love and you—in Paradise!

Ding-Dong.
I would like to be one of those story-book farmers—the simple life ideal, as it were.

The kind of farming I like encompasses broad fields, sleek horses, lowing herds, babbling brooks, waving fields and nothing to do but look at 'em. I like the kind of farming where you wake up in the morning, plant your bird seed, harvest your birds and drive back home in time to slip into your dinner coat before the bell rings.

In the evening all the lords and ladies call and to the music of the harpsichord, you dance away the wee small hours and have fresh milk for breakfast.

Speaking of farming—this is the life for me! I love the aroma of sweet clover, the hum of bees, the tasseled waving of the corn, the quack of contented geese, even the blatt song of the grasshopper is music to my soul. I provided he doesn't get me out of bed before 10 in the morning.

The fact is, I am a born farmer. No better love to wander around a farm and gaze into the face of beautiful plenty more than I do. I could sit on the sunny side of a hay cock in haying time for an hour at a time and be truly happy with nothing but a bag of cider, a new book and a straw between my teeth.

It is the perfect life, after all; the real life, the natural life, the free and untrammelled life, the healthy, spirit-elevating, close-to-God life, and as long as I can spend all the time on a farm I want to and go to Europe and other suburbs when fancy calls, I shall never—no, never—desert my broad acre-and-an-eight or nine for a city flat at $60 per—because $60 is an awful lot of money to raise every month, some months!

No sir, no city life for me. Only the undefined and edifying footstool of God, and the nearer I can get to the stool and keep out of the dirt, the better I like it!

Serious Error.
A Kansas newspaper tells the following on one of the young men of the town:

"A young man who is very particular about his washing, recently wrote a note to his washerwoman and one to his sweetheart, and by a strange fatality he put the wrong address on each envelope and sent them off. The washerwoman sent the invitation to take a ride the next day, but when the young man read it, 'If you tumble up my shirt beam any more, you did last time, where else,' she cried all the evening, and declared she would never speak to him again."

Society News.
A grand wedding was solemnized last Sunday, R. L. Powell's oldest daughter, Miss Mary, was married to Russell Duncan. The road was filled with rain. They had one side of the table in one house, and it extended clear to the barn. Rev. Coffey tied the knot.

Mr. P. Judson and wife attended wedding and they obeyed the scripture by eating and asking no questions.—Brewer's Chapel correspondence, Sequachee (Tenn.) News.

PORTRAITS OF KENTUCKY'S GOVERNORS FREE, FREE!

Every Governor's Picture from Isaac Shelby to Augustus E. Willson.

For the first time in the history of the State a complete collection of the portraits of Kentucky's Governors has been secured, and the Louisville Evening Post has made it possible to place them in the hands of every citizen of this grand old Commonwealth.

The collection was secured after art galleries and private collections all over the United States had been drawn upon. A few of them are very rare, and one of the Governors is the only picture in existence. It was secured at an expense of several hundred dollars.

The portraits of Kentucky Governors are grouped around a new map of Kentucky which has just been especially engraved at a cost of $3,500, and is the latest and best map of Kentucky ever printed. It shows all of the new railroads built in Kentucky in 1907.

In addition to the latest Kentucky map and portraits of Kentucky's Governors, there are nine other maps of great value, among them a map of the United States, showing all of the new possessions, including the Philippines, Hawaii, Porto Rico, and a map of Panama showing the canal zone, also a map of the world.

In addition to these maps there are the portraits of all the Presidents of the United States and the Rulers of all Nations, together with coat of arms and flags. The three last census reports and a complete census report of all the towns in the State of Kentucky.

Taking this wall chart as a whole it is one of the latest up-to-date atlases for the home that has been produced up to this time.

It contains six pages 28x36 inches. This wall chart is given away absolutely free to readers of this paper. Ask us about it.

Every home in Kentucky should have one of these Governors' Wall Charts, for there has never been, published in any form a complete collection of Kentucky Governors' portraits, and every man, woman and child in every home of the State should know who all of their Governors have been and when they served.

It has cost the Evening Post several thousand dollars to secure this collection of Kentucky Governors' portraits, and while the chart alone is worth at least $1.50, yet we give it away to old subscribers who renew their subscription or to new subscribers. Everybody should have a daily newspaper this year as well as their county paper. This is Presidential year. Call at our office and see this splendid Kentucky Governors' Wall Chart, or send for circular with full description.

ELOPED TO TENNESSEE

Daughter of W. H. Jones Weds Man of Her Choice.

Glasgow, Ky., Feb. 11.—Miss Annie Jones and Mr. Harrison McFarland, two well known young people of this place, surprised their many friends here by eloping to Gallatin, Tenn., where they were married last evening. Miss Jones is a daughter of the Hon. William Henry Jones, of this place, and is quite an accomplished young lady, having graduated with high honors at Liberty College here some few years since. It is understood that the parents on both sides objected seriously to the union on account of the difference in their ages, the bride being 25 years old and the groom only 19.

POOLING ACT OF 1906

Is Held to be Constitutional by Judge Carroll.

Owenton, Ky., Feb. 10.—In the case of the Owen County Burley Tobacco society against B. S. Brumback, on motion to dissolve the injunction granted by the judge of the Owen circuit court, which restrained Brumback from disposing of his 1907 crop of tobacco. Justice John D. Carroll, of the court of appeals, held the pooling act of 1906 is within the limit of the constitution and as the society is not seeking to enhance the pay of the tobacco pledged to it beyond the real value of the product, the injunction is overruled.

LONG SHEETS

And Perfect Dishes to Be Used In Hotels.

Guthrie, Okla., Feb. 11.—The lower house yesterday passed a sweeping measure regulating hotels. The measure provides that every hotel shall be fitted with a prescribed fire escape. Nine-foot sheets on the bed are specified and in regard to the dining room the measure recites: "No cup, dish, vessel or receptacle for food shall have cracks visible to the naked eye."

A bill providing that officers of corporations who conceal their books or statements shall be guilty of a felony and subject to not more than two or three years' imprisonment, has passed both houses.

NIGHT RIDERS WARN

Ruckport, Ky., Correspondent Told to Stop Writing.

Rockport, Ky., Feb. 10.—Leroy Tichenor, a newspaper correspondent of this city, has received a warning letter from the "Kentucky Night Riders" to cease publishing stories about them.

A note addressed to the reporter was found tacked to the door of his home. The missive was evidently written in a disguised hand, and read as follows:

"Leroy Tichenor—dear sir Discontinue writing in the newspapers about us or we will do you like they done that fellow down to Dawson Springs, only worse; we mean business. You newspaper fellows are too dam smart anyway and you are saying too much about us for your own good anyway. We only seek our rites and we will get them if we have to wade through blood, don't print this, if you do we will git you, beware or you'll find yourself looking into the business end of a shotgun. "NIGHT RIDERS."

A match and a 38 cartridge accompanied the note.

DIVINE GUIDANCE

Directed Young Man How to Avoid Damage Suit.

Paducah, Ky., Feb. 12.—Before Miss Flora Tyree left her place at the "Noah's Ark" store and filed suit against Earl Griffith for $3,000 for breach of promise that young man was exceedingly loath to keep his word and marry.

He called a conference at once, after the suit was filed, however, and the result is that the pair are happily wedded, and the proud husband says that the Lord showed him the proper light.

It is considered here a new divine manifestation. Griffith owns a farm in Graves county and works in the Illinois Central shop here.

AMUSEMENTS

At Wilmington, Ohio, recently Loris Seardsdale, the dainty, fascinating and altogether laughable Bob White, of the Nixon & Zimmerman musical production of that title, which appears at Holland's Opera House Feb. 19, had to give up during the first act in consequence of a fall upon the ice, sustained en route to the theatre. The part was capably filled by little Connie Mac, in private life Mrs. Frank Deshon. It will be remembered that upon a recent occasion she donned her husband's clothing and got away so successfully with the comedy role that few knew that it was not little Frankie himself. Connie has played every female role, as well as Billy Van Million in the Willard Spenser opera.

A Notable Success.

Charlie Klein's American play, "The Lion and the Mouse" which Henry B. Harris will produce here on Feb. 24, has won from audiences in all the largest cities the most cordial demonstrations of approval and it was certainly taken rank as the notable success of the new century.

Tomorrow Night.

Billy Kersand's Minstrels will hold the boards at Holland's Opera House and it is safe to predict a good house for this aggregation.

ELKS TO CELEBRATE

Valentine Reception at The Club Rooms Friday Night.

Messrs. Van Dulin, J. Fairstein and R. M. Fairleigh are the committeemen in charge of the arrangements. The lodge is just now having a rush of new members. D. T. Cranor, M. R. Roberts and R. W. Witt were initiated Tuesday night and two other applicants were elected to membership. The local lodge is now in a very flourishing condition with more than 200 members.

KITTY LEAGUE

May be Replaced by Western Kentucky Towns.

Evansville, Ind., Feb. 11.—A base ball league among the cities of Western Kentucky is contemplated. The league will probably contain such towns as Henderson, Madisonville, Hopkinsville, Owensboro, Paducah and possibly Cairo, Ill. Four of these towns were formally in the K. I. T. league. It is said that such a league as the one proposed would be profitable.

Groceryman Threatened.

Paducah, Ky., Feb. 11.—W. A. Gresham, a leading groceryman, of Kuttawa, has been warned through the mail by night riders to disambig his two negro cooks. He complied. Mrs. M. E. Mays, a widow who rents property to negroes, was compelled to evict her tenants under threat of having her house burned.
